

Hazardous Workplace Noise Safety Awareness for Employees Training

Overview

The purpose of this training is to help to provide awareness relating to noise hazards in the workplace to reduce the chance of injury. This course provides an understanding of workplace noise regulations as per the Victorian Compliance Code for Noise. It is designed to help employees understand compliance requirements, protect worker health, and minimize noise-related risks. You will gain knowledge of noise control measures, risk assessment procedures, and how to implement effective noise management systems. While it won't make you an expert in noise management, it will provide a foundational knowledge to help you understand workplace noise hazards and collaborate effectively with noise control specialists to manage noise hazards.

Who should complete the course?

- Health and safety representatives (HSRs)
- Workers in industries exposed to high levels of noise (there is a more comprehensive version for those responsible for managing noise hazards)

Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

1. Understand the key elements of the Victorian Compliance Code for Noise.
2. Identify noise hazards and determine levels of risk.
3. Understand noise control measure options.
